posed to be delivered will form an element in deciding upon the proposals.

The right will be reserved to require a greater or less quantity of any of the articles named than that specified in the above schedule; and also any others of a different description that may be needed, at the lowest market prices.

Goods of American manufacture, of the required styles and quality, will be preferred; but as the samples of blankets and cloths are foreign fabrics, it will be necessary, in proposing a domestic article of either of those kinds, that a sample thereof shall accompany the bld.

The articles to be furnished must, in all respects, conform to and be equal with the samples recently selected, which may be seen at this of fice. They will be rigidly inspected and compared with those samples by an agent or agents appointed for that purpose. Such as may be unequal thereto in any particular will be rejected; in which case the contractor will be bound to furnish others of the required kind or quality within three days; or, if that be not done, they will be jurchased at his expense. Payment will be made for the goods received on involves thereof, certified by the agent or agents appointed to inspect them.

It will be understood that all bids for furnishing the goods above expecified may be rejected at the option of the department, particularly if made by one who is not known as a manufacturer of, or regular dealer in, the article proposed to be furnished; which fact, or the reverse, must be distinctly stated in the bids offered; and that the bids of all persons who may have failed to comply with the conditions of any contracts they may have previously entered into with the United States shall, at the option of the department, he rejected, in accordance with the letter and aprile of a joint resolution of Congress relative to bids for provisions, clothing, &c., for the bid for the halfiful performance of the contract, with two or more surreties, whose suffi-

OMPLETION of Panama Railroad.—Reduction of fare to California.—United States mail steamships leave New York for Aspinwall on the 5th and 20th of each month, connecting with mail steamers from Panama to San Francisco.

These steamships have been inspected and approved by the Navy bepartment, and guaranty speed-and safety.

The Panama railroad (47 miles long) is now completed from ocean to ocean, and is crossed in 3 or 4 hours. The baggage of passengers is checked in New York through to San Francisco, and passengers are embarked at Panama by steamer at the company's expense. The money paid in New York covers all expenses of the trip.

Reserve steamers are kept in port in New York, Panama, and San Francisco, to prevent detention in case of accident, so that the route is entirely reliable.

SEETS, FERTILIZERS, &c.

THE undersigned is now prepared to furnish the above mentioned and all articles pertaining to the agricultural susiness at the lowest market rates; having just returned from a tour through the northern and New England States, where he has visited a large number of the principal agricultural manufacturing establishments, from which he has taken great pains in selecting a choice assertment of implements and machinery of all descriptions. He has also mide-arrangements to be at all times in receipt of any important improvements than any take place in the agricultural flaw. Another very important feature in this new establishment is, that the proprietor is a practical agricultural machinist, with an experience of twelve years. He has thereby acquired a thorough knowledge of this business in all tayarious branches. He therefore feels justified in saying that he can obtain and furnish all articles in his tine on as reasonable terms as any house in this country.

Machinery of all descriptions repaired at the shortest notice and on the most reasonable terms.

With the above experience and facilities for conducting this business, (which is all important,) he respectfully solicits the patronage of the farming community and public generally. It shall always be his object to please.

Yours, very respectfully,
